

Andy is a great driving instructor! I would without a doubt recommend Andy to anyone learning to drive whether they are beginners or have already has lessons. He has an incredible amount of patience and even manages to make lessons fun with a great sense of humour!

He has been a driving instructor for a number of years and so he knows his stuff and knows exactly what the examiner is looking for.

Andy puts you at ease when you drive and will allow lessons to move at a pace that you are comfortable with and will advise you to put in for your test as soon as he feels you are ready which keeps costs to a minimum!

Andy helped me pass first time and he can help you too!

Regards Abigail
