

It was an absolute pleasure to be taught how to drive by Andy. He was recommended to me by a good friend, and I thought, if he can teach her to drive and live through it, then I wouldn't have a problem. From the first moment that we met, I knew that Andy was going to be a good fit for me, 1. Because he was brave enough to let me loose behind the wheel of a car, and 2. Because he has this way of keeping you calm and focused in your most stressed out state. He makes you feel calm in yourself and have confidence in your driving. He will tell you how good you are all the time, even when you don't believe it yourself, and it is all down to his teaching. I would not be the driver I am today if someone else had taught me to drive. Andy makes you feel like you've been driving for years, so that by the time your test comes around, you know there's nothing to worry about. Andy got me from someone, who literally said, out loud, that I couldn't believe that I was in control and driving a car, to someone who passed their test 1st time with 2 minors in under 40 hours of driving. I cannot sing this man's praises enough. If you are looking for someone to teach you to drive, look no further than Andy Adkins.

Thanks again

Ashlie
