

I'm Ben Cherrill, and I learnt to drive with Andy Adkins, and can honestly say he was one of the most calm and helpful individuals I have ever met! Andy helped me with everything, and no question was too hard, or silly in my case, and he even put up with me and my bad habits, roundabouts!! Ha-ha! All in all though, I went into my test feeling very confident, and managed to pass first time, and it's mostly down to Andy and what he taught me over the 8 months we worked together! Thank you for everything again Andy, much appreciated! All the best!
