

Andy Adkins is an exceptional driving instructor. I cannot thank him enough for helping me past first time with only 5 faults. When I started looking for a driving instructor I had a large amount of people recommending him, without hesitation, I contacted him straight away and began my lessons. I was extremely nervous for the first few lessons however, Andy was able to make me forget about the nerves by his calm, professional but informative approach. Within 2 months I felt confident driving. Learning manoeuvres was easy and with simple skills and tips I was able to remember and complete them in no time at all. I would 100% recommend Andy to family and friends. Thank you for your support throughout my learning.
