

From the very beginning Andy put me at ease and made me feel comfortable learning to drive. Throughout every lesson Andy was there to answer questions and provide pointers and feedback as well as providing great methods to use for the required manoeuvres. Come test day I felt quietly confident as a result of Andy's calming persona.

In general Andy was a fantastic teacher and I would definitely recommend him to anyone that would ask.