

Many thanks to Andy for teaching me how to drive properly. With the reliable teaching and support that was given, I have become a very confident and suitable driver, passing my driving test first time with 3 faults. Prior to taking lesson's with Andy, I had bad experiences with another driving school. I felt the pressure and anxiety disappear entirely after my first lesson with Andy. Throughout the learning process of driving, he was very patient and professional with his approach to teaching, with each session feeling like an insight rather than a lesson, passing students is a passion as opposed to an obligation to Andy. I passionately recommend Andy as the go to driving instructor.

Yours sincerely
Joe
