

I didn't learn how to properly drive until I found Andy. Having previously done lessons with two different instructors I was still left with a lot of issues with my driving and hadn't passed a test even though I'd had 20+ hours in a car. It wasn't until I started learning with Andy did I feel safe, relaxed and grew confidence in myself. He is a patient and great teacher who never once made me feel like a bad driver and it is definitely because of Andy that I can drive today and would undoubtedly recommend him to ANYONE looking to learn to drive.
