

My name is Livvy and I learnt to drive with Andy Adkins in 2015. Andy taught me with a huge amount of patience and his calm approach made me feel at ease and confident. He made the lessons fun and even put up with me talking to myself which helped with my manoeuvres (and didn't once laugh!). Nothing was too much for him, even with the questions that I deemed silly, he allowed me to feel confident enough to ask repeatedly. I would highly recommend Andy to family and friends as he is an exceptional driving instructor.

Thanks,
Livvy.
