

Can't thank Andy enough for helping me regain my confidence on the road after I took a break of nearly 3 years from driving. He is very professional and makes you feel comfortable and relaxed at all times in the car... even if you make mistakes! I struggled a lot with manoeuvres but Andy made them easy to deal with by using simple techniques that work every time.

After only a couple of lessons I realised I was a much better driver than I thought I was and having passed my test with only 2 minor errors, I can safely say I am now confident in my ability to drive and it's all thanks to Andy! I would recommend him to anyone who is thinking of learning (or re-learning!) to drive. Thanks so much for all your help :) Lucy
